

Which one of the verses or statements struck you the most? Were there any that you rediscovered or learned for the first time?

The Bible clearly teaches that Jesus was fully man and fully God at the same time. At times in my life this truth has been very encouraging, while at other times it has been very confusing. Are you encouraged or confused by this truth? Why do you say that?

Is there anything you read or wrote down tonight about Jesus that was hard for you to accept? What was it? Why was it hard?
